

Prayers For My Husband

O Blessed St. Joseph, beloved spouse and tender guardian of our Lord, Jesus Christ, I come before you to intercede for me as I pray for _____ to grow in faith and love of the Father in his role as husband and protector of our family here on earth.

Almighty and powerful Father, give _____ the grace to grow in knowledge of You and always put his relationship with You above all other relationships, including ours. Give him the grace to do Your will in his life. Let him seek You with a humble heart and yearn to please You for the sake of pleasing only You and not to impress others.

Father, bless the work of _____ hands. Provide him with opportunities to do work he enjoys, and to continually thank You for Your providence. I pray he would not make an idol out of his work. Grant him the gift of a keen and creative mind so work never becomes mundane. Give _____ the vision to pursue the things he loves in work and play that will glorify Your goodness.

Before Your sacred eyes, I kneel and ask you to keep _____ close to Your heart and keep his heart pure and free from evil thoughts and words. Let him be Your light to others. Pour down your blessings upon him and let him constantly seek Your instruction through Your Holy Word. Let him never be ashamed of his weaknesses, but to humbly surrender them to you and to rely on Your strength. St. Joseph, most chaste spouse of our Blessed Mother, plead, with me, to our Father, to keep _____ from all immorality, impurity or greed. Let him refrain from obscenity and suggestive talk and instead fill his mouth with thanksgiving for all provision that comes from above. Build up in him pure, moral and selfless character so that he may serve Your people on earth and inherit the kingdom of Christ.

Father, help me to bring value to _____ and honor him. May he grow to trust my judgement as we partner together in our marriage, parenting, finances and faith. Help us both to forgive and let go of bitterness quickly when we have hurt one another. Grant us the grace to recognize the Spirit stirring within us as we learn from our mistakes and grow in how we communicate with one another. As _____ leads our family, help him to inspire with his words of praise and correct with love and affection, to become the pillar You created him to be.

Father, place a hedge of protection around _____ and keep him safe as he works and in all other areas of his life. Restore any area of his health that needs your healing touch whether in body, mind, or spirit. Give him the strength to let go of any habits that are not healthy for him. Bind up any wounds from his past that are bringing him pain and discomfort or give him the perseverance to seek help where he needs to. Where there is any unresolved conflict in his life, step in and soften the hearts involved.

Most gracious Giver of Gifts, bring godly men into _____ life, who would lead him closer to You and not away. May he be a good friend to those who need friendship. Provide him with opportunities for relaxation, mentorship, and service, in Your Holy Name.
